

THE 3RD ANNUAL SUMMER INSTITUTE IN INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS

“Internal Conflicts in the Asia Pacific Region”

Monday, May 10 – Saturday, May 22, 2010
Bali / Aceh, Indonesia

FUNDING FORM

(must be submitted with application form)

The tuition fee for participants in Summer Institute 2010 is US$2,000. This fee covers the cost of administering the Summer Institute. In Bali, course materials and lunches on days the Summer Institute is in session are included within the fee. The tuition fee does not cover costs of travel (air and ground), accommodation, visa fees and incidental expenses during the two-week workshop.

We hope to provide as much financial support as possible to those participants who need assistance and qualify to receive funds from our various donor sources. However, there are substantial costs associated with putting on the Summer Institute each year, and we receive many more requests for support from qualified applicants than we can fully fund with our limited resources. As such, all applicants are expected to seek funding from their home organizations, governments, universities, or outside funding agencies. Those participants who show initiative raising funds to cover at least part of their participation greatly increase their chances of being awarded scholarship support from the East-West Center. For example, participants who secure funding to cover their travel expenses and/or lodging costs will be given special consideration by our scholarships committee for a program fee waiver. Likewise, those who find a third-party sponsor to cover all or part of the program fee will be given priority in the allocation of travel stipend funds and/or East-West Center sponsored lodging.

We understand that, despite your best efforts, some of you will be unable to secure any form of third-party sponsorship. If this is the case, and you wish to be considered for one of our limited number of full East-West Center scholarships, please check the appropriate box below. As noted, you will be required to complete a supplementary essay explaining your financial situation to our scholarship committee, and detailing why you are among the strongest candidates to be fully funded.
