East–West Center Student Affiliate Program

➔ The East-West Center Student Affiliate Program invites externally funded (e.g. Fulbright or other scholarships, graduate assistantships, etc.) or self-funded graduate students at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa (UHM) to participate in the Center's educational and leadership development opportunities, and to live in its international residence halls.

Students join a dynamic and supportive community of scholars from across the US and more than 50 countries with a focus on the Indo-Pacific region and establish lasting connections that extend into future careers and other endeavors. Students play an active role in community building, enhance their knowledge of regional issues, and have access to mentorship, travel grants, and internships.

This program is open to students from all countries around the world who:

- Are a full-time classified graduate student at UHM in good academic standing;
- Have an interest in or connection to the Asia Pacific region; and,
- Want to contribute to community building and positive change.

Benefits:

- Discounted housing in EWC's well-located residence halls
- Funding for travel/field study
- Professional development
- Academic expertise
- Leadership opportunities
- Culturally diverse community
- Global network
- Social events and activities

Affiliates are required to arrive on campus two weeks prior to the start of the academic school year to participate in our Community Building Institute. Admission is offered for the full year beginning each August, with an opportunity to continue in our program beyond then.

The deadline to apply:
May 15 for Fall Semester
