

Berea College UISFL Core Course Workshop Schedule

February 14-15, 2019

Thursday, February 14

External participants arriving at Lexington Bluegrass Airport.

Lunch on your own in Berea.

3:00-5:00: Dr. Andrew Wilson (US Naval War College) presenting in Frost 218. "Hegemony and Humiliation: How History informs China's contemporary behavior."

5:30: Dinner with UISFL/AST faculty, Boone Tavern.

Friday, February 15

Breakfast on your own

Free morning (other classroom visits possible)

Lunch on your own, or optional opening ceremony for mandala ceremony for Tashi Kyil Tibetan monks.

1:30-3:30: Dr. Cathy Clayton (University of Hawaii) presenting in Frost 101, "Ethnic Diversity in China." The presentation will be incorporated into Dr. Rebecca Bates's AST/HIS 229: Modern Imperialism.

4:00-5:00: Wrap-up session for Berea's UISFL team, visiting scholars, and those who wish to join the discussion regarding the continued development of Chinese Studies at Berea.

6:00-8:00: Dinner with UISFL/AST faculty. Location TBA.

Saturday, February 15

Shuttle external participants to the airport.