"TEACHING AND RESEARCH IN AN ASIAN CONTEXT: NEW DIRECTIONS"

Middlesex Community College, the East-West Center, and the University of Hawai'i are pleased to invite you to participate in the sixth annual national conference sponsored by the Asian Studies Development Program. The conference will be held on Wednesday, March 10th and Thursday, March 11th, 1999 at the Doubletree Hotel in Lowell. The conference fee is $75. The Henry Luce Foundation is providing funding to underwrite part of the conference fee.

Featured speakers for the conference will include Dr. Charles E. Morrison, President of the East-West Center and Dr. Richard Samuels, Director of the Japan Program at MIT. Concurrent sessions on Asian studies will include new research and infusion material in business, humanities, social science, and allied health courses. This conference is intended to provide participants with an opportunity to share materials and ideas and connect with teachers from other two and four year institutions throughout the nation. Please join us for this exciting series of events.
