Stay at Home, Work from Home Emergency Order

What
An order by the government for all residents and visitors to stay at home except when conducting essential activities or if they work at essential businesses.

Who
All residents and visitors except essential personnel

When
Starting Monday, March 23, at 4:30 pm.

Essential Activities
These are ok to do!
- Tasks essential to your health and safety
- To obtain necessary services and supplies (like groceries)
- To engage in outdoor activity in locations permitted by law
- To perform work providing essential products and services
- To care for a family member or pet in another household

Essential Businesses
These will remain open!
- Healthcare facilities
- Grocery stores
- Restaurants (delivery & carry out only)
- Stores selling household products
- Hardware stores
- Food banks
- Homeless shelters
- Gas stations and auto-service facilities
- Banks
- Maintenance services (plumbers, etc.)
- Mail services
- Educational institutions providing distance learning
- Laundry services
- Business supplying products necessary to work from home
- Airlines, taxis, & other private transport providers
- Home care and residence homes for seniors, children, and people with developmental disabilities
- Legal services
- Childcare facilities
- Animal shelters
- Critical trades
- Critical labor union functions
- And more.

For more in-depth information, see the Mayor’s proclamation at https://bit.ly/33FTYef