The Student Affiliate Program is a highly sought after, competitive program available to all University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa graduate students. Student Affiliates are able to take advantage of the valuable resources at the East-West Center to support their academic and professional goals. The Student Affiliate Program provides an opportunity to engage, interact, and live with the Center’s degree fellows, scholars, and other participants from across the U.S. and more than 50 countries. For many students, these relationships have proved to be instrumental in helping to establish valuable networks that extend into future careers or other endeavors. The program is open to students from all countries that have research interests relating to the Asia Pacific region. Preference is given to those with an outstanding academic record and a commitment to community service.

Benefits:
- Discounted Housing
- Funding for Travel/Field Study
- Professional Development
- Academic Expertise
- Leadership Opportunities
- Culturally Diverse Community
- Global Network
- Social Events & Activities

East-West Center Student Affiliate Program
Deadlines for Applications: May 15 and November 1

For more information and how to apply, visit EastWestCenter.Org/StudentAffiliate

Above: View of Diamond Head from Hale Mānoa, one of the EWC dormitories, conveniently located on East-West Road, just across the street from the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa. Hale Kuahine is a second dorm located steps away from the university.