WEDNESDAY EVENING SEMINAR

Education Program Presents

Transitions and Justice in Southeast Asia

Dr. Ehito Kimura
Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science
University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa

Wednesday, October 12, 2011
6:30 – 8:30 p.m.
Keoni Auditorium, Imin International Conference Center

Dr. Ehito Kimura is Assistant Professor of Political Science at the University of Hawaii‘i at Mānoa. He studied at Georgetown University (BSFS), Yale University (MA), and University of Wisconsin-Madison (PhD) and has been Shorenstein Postdoctoral Fellow at Stanford University.

His interests are at the nexus of Southeast Asian politics and comparative political change. He is currently working on a book manuscript examining Indonesia's recent transition to democracy and the factors influencing changes in domestic territorial boundaries. He is also pursuing a new research project on transitional justice in Indonesia from a comparative perspective.

Refreshments will be served. Please bring your own cup, plate/bowl and utensil. The public is invited to attend. Check out our WES blog - http://mywes.info/
