

WEDNESDAY EVENING SEMINAR

Education Program Presents

Jalanan: A Music Documentary

Daniel Ziv, Film-maker and Author

Wednesday, February 25, 2015

6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Keoni Auditorium, Imin International Conference Center

This evening we screen a documentary followed by a discussion with film director Daniel Ziv. Boni, Ho and Titi are three gifted, charismatic street musicians in Jakarta. JALANAN follows these young marginalized musicians and their never before seen sub-culture, while also painting a striking, moody and intimate portrait of Indonesia's frenzied capital city. See a preview here: <http://www.jalananmovie.com/trailers/>

Daniel Ziv is a documentary filmmaker, author and political commentator based in Bali, Indonesia. A native of Canada, Daniel moved to Jakarta in 1999 and spent a decade documenting urban life in Indonesia's bustling capital city as a writer, magazine editor and filmmaker. His debut feature-length documentary, JALANAN, is a gritty, intimate portrait of Indonesia seen through the eyes of three Jakarta street musicians. It recently had its world premiere at the Busan International Film Festival, where it won the Best Documentary prize. JALANAN became the first Indonesian documentary to be commercially released in cinemas across the country, and that it has screened at 35 festivals so far and picked up 9 awards.

This event is also supported by Permi-as-Hawai'i and The University Students of Urban and Regional Planning.

We are firm believers in food-based learning. Excellent refreshments will be served. Please bring your own cup, plate/bowl and utensil. The public is invited to attend.
