The best Way to Predict the Future is to Create It: Transformation Through Innovation

Ramsay R.M. Taum
Founder and president of the Hawai‘i based Life Enhancement Institute (LEI) of the Pacific LLC

Wednesday, January 25, 2012
6:30-8:30 pm
Keoni Auditorium, Imin International Conference Center

Professor Ramsay was born and raised in Hawaii. He is a graduate of the Kamehameha Schools, attended the United States Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Public Administration from the University of Southern California. Prof. Ramsay’s eclectic background and experience in business, government and community service makes him a valuable asset in both public and private sectors and has been instrumental in for-profit and non-profit business. His work in promoting sustainable place-based and Hawaiian cultural stewardship principles and practices is acknowledged locally, nationally and internationally. Prof. Ramsay was awarded the 2008 East West Center’s Leadership Certificate Program’s Recognition Award for Transformational Leadership in Sustainability, and in that same year was Hawaii Home + Remodeling, HONOLULU & Hawaii Business magazine’s, “Who’s Keeping Hawai‘i Green” 2008 Individual Educator Honoree.

A recognized cultural resource Ramsay is sought after as a keynote speaker, lecturer, trainer and facilitator. He is especially effective working with Hawaii’s travel, leisure and retail industry where he integrates Native Hawaiian cultural values and principles into contemporary business. Mentored and trained by respected kūpuna (elders), he is a practitioner and instructor of several Native Hawaiian practices including hoomonopono (stress release and mediation), lomi haha (body alignment) and Kaihewalu Lua (Hawaiian combat/battle art).
