

Daniel Berman

1960s Alumnus

In 1965 Dan came to the EWC as a Ph.D. candidate in South Asian History. At the EWC he met Elizabeth, an EWC alumna, they married and while on field study in India, enjoyed the birth of their daughter Janaki. From 1972-98, Dan enjoyed a career in education. He and Elizabeth returned to Hawai'i reconnecting with the EWC. Dan served: as co-chair of the conferences celebrating the EWC's 40th and 50th anniversaries; as EWCA's President from 2000-2005; and from 2005-08 as EWC Representative to South Asia promoting the student program, holding a South Asia Regional Conference and helping to found and build EWC alumni chapters. In his continued annual South Asia trips he continues to informally promote the EWC.

EAST-WEST
CENTER