

Claire K. Langham

1960s Alumna

Claire K. Langham, after completing an East-West Center grant in 1964 with field study in Indonesia, was an International Student Adviser at the University of Hawai'i. Following 5 years in Hawai'i and Asia, including a Fulbright Grant to India, she served 5 years in Latin America, plus 5 more in Istanbul and Izmir, Turkey with her husband in the US Foreign Service in Cultural & Public Relations. Earning a Ph.D. in Sociology at the University of California San Diego, as a professor, she emphasized multicultural studies. Claire's been active in chapter leadership in Southern California and participates in most all EWCA International Conferences.

EAST-WEST
CENTER