

Charles E. Morrison

EWC President 1998-2016

Charles E. Morrison was president of the East-West Center from 1998 to 2016. He has been associated with the Center since 1980 in various capacities, including heading its former Institute of Economics and Politics. A U.S. Senate aide early in his career, he has also been a research associate at the Japan Center for International Exchange. Morrison served as the international chair of the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council from 2005 to 2012, and is a member of other national and international bodies that promote trans-Pacific security and economic cooperation. His Ph.D. is from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies. He speaks and publishes widely on U.S. Asia policy issues and the countries of the region.
