

Victor & Komelia Okim

2010s Alumni

Komelia Hongja Okim is Prof. Emerita of Art, Montgomery College, Rockville, MD. She was selected as a Fulbright Exchange Scholar to Korea to teach and research three times ('82-83), (94-95), & ('15-16) to do an in-depth study of Korean Traditional Metal Techniques.

Dr. Victor E. Okim has worked as a U.S. govt translator, a reporter for The Pacific Stars & Stripes in Okinawa, an Acad. Librarian at Indiana Univ., Library Director at Catholic Univ. in Wash., D.C. & at the Japanese American Cultural Center in LA. He currently serves as an consultant at the US-Japan Research Services in Rockville, MD.

EAST-WEST
CENTER