

Gordon Ring

1960s Alumnus and Former EWC Staff

Gordon Ring came to EWC in 1963 as a grantee and studied Chinese history at UH. His professional career with EWC began in 1969 as Public Affairs assistant which included serving as the EWC photographer, developing his own film and caring for the dark room. He quickly moved into the Chancellor/President's office where, from 1971-1983, he served as assistant to three Presidents: Everett Kleinjans, Lee-Jay Cho, and Victor Li. Ring is best known as the Center's Alumni Officer, serving from 1983-1993 and again from 1999 to 2010. From his President's Office perspective, he vividly describes the political and emotional tug-of-war during the 1975 EWC incorporation. Ring met his wife Milly during EWC staff lunchtime tennis matches down at the UH courts.

EAST-WEST
CENTER