

Charles B. Salmon, Jr.

EWC Staff

Ambassador Charles B. Salmon, Jr., an Adjunct Senior Fellow at the East-West Center with a distinguished career in the U.S. Foreign Service, served as foreign policy advisor to the commander in chief, U.S. Pacific Command, from June 1993 to 1996. His prior assignment was Vientiane, Laos, where he was the American ambassador. Following his retirement from the Foreign Service in 1996, he was foreign policy advisor and faculty member at the Asia Pacific Center for Security Studies until 2014. His long association with the East-West Center includes serving as president of the Friends of the East-West Center and as a member of the board of directors of the EWC Foundation.

EAST-WEST
CENTER