

Didin Sastrapradja

1960s Alumnus

Dr. Sastrapradja earned his Ph.D. in Botany from UH. After graduation he took a post-graduate study in the Smithsonian Institution in D.C. & Forest Research Institute in Reinbeck, Germany. Other titles include: Asst. Director of the National Biological Institute, Curator of the Bogor Botanical Gardens, Executive Secretary of LIPI, Deputy Chairman for Natural Resources, & was later promoted to Vice Chairman of the same institute. He was later appointed to be Assistant to the Minister of Research and Technology. After his retirement from the government post, he was elected Member of Parliament for one term. His last positions were Board member of the Indonesian Biodiversity Fdn., World Wide life for Nature, AMINEF (the Fulbright) Fdn), & LAKSMI (Lembaga Kajian Sumberdaya Maritim Indonesia). He passed away in Bogo on July 28, 2010.

EAST-WEST
CENTER