

Edward J. Shultz

1970s Alumnus

Edward J. Shultz is professor emeritus at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, and was a visiting professor at Sogang University in 2014 in Seoul where he taught Korean history. He first came to Korea as a Peace Corps volunteer in 1966, after graduating from Union College in New York, and lived in Pusan. As a graduate student he was an East-West Center grantee as well as a Fulbright pre-doctoral scholar. After receiving his Ph.D. in 1976 from the University of Hawai'i, he taught at the University of Hawai'i until he retired in August 2013. At UH he served as the director of the Center for Korean Studies and later as the dean of the School of Pacific and Asian Studies. In the spring of 2015 he served as interim chancellor of Hawai'i Tokai International College. His major area of research is Koryŏ history with a special interest in social, institutional, and political history.

EAST-WEST
CENTER