

Larry E. Smith

Former EWC Staff

Larry E. Smith joined the East-West Center in 1970, retiring in 1999 as director and dean of the education program. He was instrumental in founding the International Association of World Englishes and co-founded and edited and then advisor to the Journal of World Englishes. After retiring, he continued to be a part of the East-West Center through the friends of the East-West Center.

EAST-WEST
CENTER