

Jon Van Dyke

Former EWC Staff

Professor Jon Markham Van Dyke, Harvard Law School '67, East-West Center Adjunct Fellow and Richardson Law School Professor, was dedicated to the development of international and ocean law, peace and reconciliation in Northeast Asia, human rights, the environment, and rights of Native Hawaiians.

A prominent international and constitutional law expert and mentor, Van Dyke won numerous teaching and research awards including several UH Regents' medals for excellence. A prolific scholar, his books Sharing the Resources of the South China Sea and Who Owns the Crown Lands of Hawai'i have been recognized as significant contributions to these issues. He was co-author of the casebook, International Law and Litigation in the U.S.

EAST-WEST
CENTER