

Yasukata Yano

1960s Alumnus

Yasukata Yano is Professor Emeritus of Applied Linguistics at Waseda University. EWC grantee (1963-65, MA in TESL). Professional Diploma in TEFL at Columbia University (1967) and PhD in Linguistics at the University of Wisconsin (1977). Taught at Columbia University, the University of Chicago and Waseda University. While at Waseda, Visiting fellow at the University of London (1990) and Visiting colleague at the University of Hawai'i (1998). Board member of the International Association for World Englishes and the Association Internationale Linguistique Appliquee. President of EWC Tokyo Chapter (2013-2015). The founding president of Japan Association of Teaching Language and Culture.

EAST-WEST
CENTER