

Raised in Majuro, Jasmine Henry currently serves as an Assistant Attorney General for the Republic of the Marshall Islands and, as owner of the small coffee shop Lazy Jays Café, is one of the youngest female entrepreneurs in the country.

Raised in Majuro, Ms. Henry attended Majuro Baptist Christian Academy and graduated with a Bachelors of Arts Degree in Political Science from Wingate University in North Carolina, where she was a Gates Millennium Scholar. She moved to Australia to pursue a degree in law and received her Juris

Doctors from Bond University in 2018.

Ms. Henry started her career as a Grant Writer at the College of the Marshall Islands and worked as a lawyer for the Marshall Islands Resources Authority prior to moving into her current position. She enjoys spending time with family and making YouTube videos (www.youtube.com/JasmineHenry).